

ABOUT THE LECTURER

Name:

Constantine Ng Choong Hiap

Position:

Senior Academic Head

Status:

Full-Time

Highest Academic Qualification:

Master of Arts in Southeast Asian Studies

Master of Arts in Educational Research

MBA in Information Technology Management

MSc in Business Systems Analysis & Design

Education Institution:

National University of Singapore, Singapore

University of Durham, UK

City University, London, UK

BIOGRAPHY

Constantine holds Master of Arts in Southeast Asian Studies from National University of Singapore, Singapore, Master of Arts in Educational Research from University of Durham, UK and MBA in Information Technology Management and MSc in Business Systems Analysis & Design, both from City University, London, UK. He has much experience in academic and management roles. He is involved in the teaching and leadership of academic programmes from diploma to postgraduate levels. His teaching interests include cross-cultural management; regionalism, globalism and business sustainability; organizational culture & leadership; knowledge management & the learning organization. His research interests focus on the social & economic developments in Southeast Asia such as climate change and the impact on business practices, the management of culturally diverse workforces; access to education & the social development of different ethnic groups; and the mobility of labour in regional groupings such as ASEAN.