

ABOUT THE LECTURER

Name: Randahl Koh Zhiwei

Position: Head of Internal Programme & Senior Lecturer

Status: Full-Time

Highest Academic Qualification: Masters of Business Administration (Merit)

Education Institution: University of Wolverhampton

BIOGRAPHY

Randahl began his career in the tourism and resorts industry in Universal Studios Singapore where he set-up the entry operations department and gained experience in the areas of planning and sales development for Resorts World Sentosa. He later moved on to teach tourism services in Institute of Technical Education (ITE) College West under School of Business & Services. He was also a class advisor and co-founder for a Core Curricular Activities (CCA) club, Tourism Club, which won national competitions such as Youth Entrepreneurs Competition and Tourism Innovation Competition for two consecutive years. In 2014, he won a teaching award for his contributions in academic excellence in ITE. He also rose to become the Deputy Discipline Master in ITE and was conferred by the Singapore Police Force as an Honorary Inspector under the Voluntary Special Constabulary scheme. Prior to joining ERC, Randahl furthered his industry experience in a management role in Entertainment & Programming for Sentosa Leisure Management. Randahl is now heading the Diploma Programmes and Head of Student Services in ERC Institute.