

ABOUT THE LECTURER

Name:

Leo Ann Pheng

Position:

Senior Lecturer

Status:

Full-Time

Highest Academic Qualification:

Masters in Accounting

Education Institution:

Curtin University

BIOGRAPHY

Leo Ann Pheng CPA is a member of CPA Australia since 2006. He has a Masters in Accounting from Curtin Business School, Curtin University and a Bachelor of Commerce (Finance) from Haskayne Business School, University of Calgary in Alberta Canada. He has a Graduate Diploma in Marketing from Marketing Institute of Singapore.

He has regional corporate finance, business control, compliance, sales operations and business development experiences with global multinationals: Oracle Corp, Sun Microsystems Inc, Tetra Laval International, Tokyo Century Corp (Mizuho Bank).

He has strong regional financing expertise in lease asset financing and trade finance with field experience in project financing and operating capital management projects with companies regionally.

Leo is an experienced trainer who has conducted corporate training seminars and workshop in China, Japan, Korea, Taiwan, Vietnam, India, Pakistan, ASEAN and Australia. He is passionate about facilitating learning and training. He is ACTA certified trainer and assessor.

He has adjunct and volunteer lecturing experience with college level students in China, Cambodia, and Singapore. Since Dec 2016, Leo has been appointed a full-time Senior Lecturer at ERC Institute (Singapore).