BIOGRAPHY

Lorilyn is a graduate of Bachelor of Science in Secondary Education, major in English from University of the Philippines, Diliman. She took up Masters in Language and Literacy Education several years after she started working as an ESL Lecturer. Lorilyn has been teaching ESL/TESOL for more than ten years now and has been a part of several private schools including RELC, FIS Institute and TMC Academy where she taught 'O' Levels English.

As a lecturer, Lori takes pride in inspiring her students to take up more active role in their learning journey. She believes that learning shouldn't be limited within the four walls of a classroom; hence, she encourages her students to explore and discover their own potentials.
